

OSAC Names a New Performing Arts Coordinator

January 19, 2012

The Organization of Saskatchewan Arts Councils (OSAC) is pleased to announce that Skip Taylor will be assuming the role of Performing Arts Coordinator for Stars for Saskatchewan and Koncerts for Kids.

Skip has been involved in the music industry in Alberta and Saskatchewan for over 20 years including HMV and for many years was the Saskatchewan Sales and Promotion Representative for Universal Music Canada. Skip also has been an long time advocate for Saskatchewan, and Canadian, artists including serving on the volunteer board for SaskMusic and being part of their education and mentorship program.

Skip will begin with OSAC on Wednesday February 1 2012 and can be reached at (306) 586- 1253 or skip@osac.sk.ca.

Please join me in welcoming Skip to his new position with OSAC.
